Today's Market Reports

ATCHISON TAKES
BRACE ON GOOD
REPORT

Stock Becomes Active in Wall Street Today on Showing of Improved Earnings and Crop Prospects.

By Leased Wire to Evening Herald. New York, June 3.—The market closed strong today. Upward tendency of prices was due to exhaustion of professional selling pressure and signs of accumulation of certain railroads and speculators. Railroad shares were bought more freely in the late dealings. Atchison, in particular, responded to reports of good earnings and crop prospects.

Closing prices on the more important stocks were:

Atchison, 74 3/4.

Sugar, 107 1/2.

Atchison, 98 1/2.

Reading, 164 1/2.

Southern Pacific, 82 1/2.

Union Pacific, 154 1/2.

Steel, 60 1/2.

Steel preferred, 109 1/2.

Chicago Grain

Chicago, June 3.—Wheat continued to advance today, influenced by firm cables. It was said the drought in southwestern Russia had not been relieved, as the rains reported to have fallen there proved to be scattered and light. Assertions that black rust was spreading in Oklahoma and had passed from the shore stage to full development counted also against the bears. Prices started unchanged at 54 1/2 cents and then again rose. The close was strong, 54 3/4 to 55 cent higher.

Outs sympathized with the strength of other grain.

In grain buyers were in a majority. An upturn of prices at the yards formed a fresh incentive for an advance.

Cattle prices:

Wheat—July, 87 1/2; Sept., 86¢. Corn—July, 12 1/2; Sept., 67 1/2. Oats—July, 48 1/2; Sept., 38 1/2. Pork—July, $20.45; Sept., $19.95. Lard—July, $10.10; Sept., $10.25. Butter—July, $11.30; Sept., $11.37.

NO REST FOR TROUBLED
BALCAN
STATES

While World's Interest Is Held by Mexico and Ulster Bloody Warfare Goes on Uninterrupted.

NOMINAL PEACE JOKE
THROUGHOUT EUROPE

Massacre and Pillage All Over the Region Where Even American Peace Commission Gave Up in Despair.

By the Associated Press. London, June 2.—The troubles of Mexico and Ulster have wholly overshadowed public interest in the Near East during recent months. But the formal ending of the Balkan war has brought no rest to that long suffering region. Thrace, Macedonia and Albania are holding with racial and religious strife. Stories of fighting, of persecution and of massacre come to the London papers from many correspondents, and are printed in small type with little comment. Europe has come to accept these conditions as a matter of course.

The changes of boundaries and of sovereignty which resulted from the peace treaties, and the launching of Albania as an autonomous state, are responsible for the new era of struggle and butchery. Every power concerned in the new adjustments is trying to impress not only its laws but its own state religion upon those who have become its subjects. If the current historians are to be believed,

Foufie "conversions" by wholesale seem the order of the day. Between the Christians and the Mussulman dispensations, between Greeks, Turks, Bulgarians, Roumanians, Serbians and Albanians, there is little choice of standards of civilization.

Much of the information comes from Athens which presents events often from the standpoint of Greek interests, which is disseminated by the newspapers of Vienna, which is a coalition of canards.

The Turkish government is determined to drive the whole Greek population from Thrace, according to accounts from Greek sources. It has organized a campaign of oppression which is making life impossible for people of Greek affiliation in the country about Kirk Kilisse, Eski Burza and all the land which Bulgaria conquered in the first war and lost through the final treaty.

By Greeks is meant the adherents of the Greek church, since nationality is recognized as following religion rather than blood in those regions.

The Greeks are pictured as having as desperate times in Thrace under the rod of the Young Turk as the Bulgarians had in Macedonia under Abdii Hamid. The methods of terrorism are the same.

Irregular troops, who get their living by foot and bands of so-called brigands, all supposed to be acting under inspiration from Constantinople, are overrunning the country. Burning villages light the sky, as during the days of war; cattle and sheep are driven away; village and ravishing go on. Life is made so intolerable that Greek inhabitants are glad to escape to the coast with what bundles they can carry on their backs.

Athens reports that 25,000 refugees have arrived at Salomika by ship, and that 15,000 more are waiting on the coast to get away.

The head of the Greek church at Constantinople persuaded the British ambassador to remonstrate with the Sublime Porte, and orders were telegraphed to the local governors to repatriate all refugees. Truth says that these orders were meant only for the ambassador's benefit, and that the governors were given the word secretly to disregard them.

That was a familiar strategem of the old Turkish diplomacy when pressure from the powers became too acute to bear.

The Greek government, on its part,
